The Background Investigation Process

The information you provided in your Personal History Statement will be used during the course of your background investigation as one of several investigative tools for determining your suitability for employment as a San Francisco Police Officer.

All statements are subject to verification.

You must account for all time periods in your personal history and supplied background information.

Deliberate misstatements, inaccuracies or incomplete statements may bar or remove you from the background investigation process or cause you to be removed from employment if you do become employed.

It is to your advantage to respond openly. If there are issues or factors in your background that you feel may be negative, remember that they will be evaluated in terms of the facts and circumstances surrounding their occurrence and their degree of relevance to the position of police officer. Concealing an issue or incident can have a greater negative impact than the particular issue would have had alone.

Once you have been assigned to an investigator and the background investigation process has begun, you must update the investigator with any new information that was not included in the Personal History Statement that you submitted. While the background investigation is in progress, you must inform your investigator without delay whenever any of the following incidents occur.

- 1) Any criminal incident in which you are a victim or questioned as a suspect or witness
- 2) Any incident of domestic violence whether as victim or suspect
- 3) Any contact by a law enforcement agency on official business
- 4) Any traffic citation received for a moving violation
- 5) Any court document that is filed on your behalf or against you, civil or criminal
- 6) Change of address

Cooperation During the Background Process

Remember that you are the applicant. You must make yourself available and be ready to adjust your schedule to meet the demands of a background investigation. Failure to keep required appointments, provide necessary documents or delayed response to an information request may prolong your background or interfere with its timely completion.

Your background investigation is a personnel matter and therefore is confidential. Do not encourage third party inquires to the Background Investigations Unit regarding your status (e.g., acquaintances or friends in the SFPD). The Background Investigations Unit will only communicate with you as the applicant or your legal representative.

If you have any questions or concerns about the background process, those inquires should be directed only to your assigned investigator. If you wish to consult with your investigator for any reason, please call and make an appointment beforehand. Applicants should know their eligibility list number and the name and rank of their assigned investigator when calling the Background Investigations Unit.

If you change your address, phone number, employment, marital status or for any other major development in your personal affairs, you must notify your assigned investigator without delay.

Persons who inexcusably fail to complete a required medical examination or fail to follow established procedures in reporting for medical examination shall be placed under waiver on all eligibility lists and shall have the appointment and/or certification canceled. Such waiver shall not be removed except with the special permission of the Human Resources Director. A second occurrence shall remove the name of the person from all eligible lists, and future employment shall require the express approval of the Human Resources Director.(Civil Service Rule 216.1.2)

Any applicant who becomes injured or seriously ill at any time after completing the medical examination portion of the Background Investigation must report to the SFPD Police Physician and be medically reevaluated. Your investigator can put you in touch with the doctor.

Successful applicants who are admitted to the Police Academy may not hold any other form of employment during their Academy Training and throughout their subsequent probationary period.

The procedural information contained in this document is for your reference during the background investigation. All applicants are required to adhere to these procedures.

California All-Purpose Acknowledgment

The so-called “all-purpose” acknowledgment wording, as prescribed in California Civil Code Section 1189(a), is mandatory for all acknowledgments taken in the state, whether the acknowledger is signing as an individual or a representative (partner, corporate officer, attorney in fact, trustee, etc.).

Law permits California Notaries to use an out-of-state acknowledgment form on a document that will be filed in that other state or U.S. jurisdiction, but only if “the form does not require the Notary to determine or certify that the signer holds a particular representative capacity or to make other determinations and certifications not allowed by California law” (Civil Code Section 1189(c)).

Still, however, any acknowledged document notarized and filed or recorded in California must bear only an all-purpose certificate.

State law requires the “all-purpose” certificate wording to be used exactly as it appears in statute.

The optional section at the bottom can deter alteration of the document or fraudulent reattachment of this form to an unintended document. The insertions in this section are not required by law. Failure to fill out this section will not affect the validity of the certificate.

Instructions:

- 1 NAME OF COUNTY where Notary performs notarization.
- 2 DATE OF NOTARIZATION. Actual month, day and year on which signer(s) appear(s) before Notary.
- 3 NAME & TITLE OF NOTARIZING OFFICER. In the case of a Notary, “Notary Public” would be the title.
- 4 NAME(S) OF SIGNER(S) appearing before Notary. Initials and spelling of names should agree with name(s) signed on document and ID card. Line through any remaining space.
- 5 SIGNATURE OF NOTARY exactly as name appears on commissioning papers, in space 3 and in seal.
- 6 NOTARY SEAL IMPRINT, clearly and legibly affixed.

SPACES 7–14 ARE OPTIONAL. Omission of information here will not affect the document’s validity. However, completing these spaces can deter alteration of the document or fraudulent reattachment of this form to an unintended document.

- 7 TITLE OR TYPE OF DOCUMENT notarized, such as “Grant Deed.”
- 8 DATE OF DOCUMENT notarized. Most but not all documents will have a date, usually at the top or following the signature. If none, insert “No Date.”
- 9 NUMBER OF PAGES in the notarized document. This may point out fraudulent addition or removal of pages. Do not count the certificate as a page. However, the certificate will be regarded as a page by recording officials in assessing recording fees.

- 10 SIGNER(S) OTHER THAN NAMED IN SPACE 4. Since all signers might not be named on the same notarial certificate, insert name(s) of signer(s) here that appear(s) or will appear on other certificates — as many as space allows. If there are a large number of signers, a notation such as “Mary Smith and 28 other signers” will suffice. If none, insert “no other signers.”
- 11 NAME(S) OF SIGNER(S) from space 4 whose capacity and represented entity follow.
- 12 CAPACITY CLAIMED BY SIGNER. Check appropriate box to indicate whether signer is signing as individual (on his or her own behalf), or as corporate officer (indicate corporate title), partner (indicate whether “limited” or “general” partner), attorney in fact, trustee, guardian/conservator, or in another capacity.
- 13 DESCRIPTION OF OTHER CAPACITY(IES). A single capacity, such as “executor,” may be indicated here; or a multiple capacity, such as “corporate officer signing for partnership in which corporation is partner.”

- 14 NAME OF PERSON OR LEGAL ENTITY that signer is representing. It could, for example, be the name of an absent person represented by attorney in fact. It could be the name of a condominium association, such as “Blue Lagoon Condo Assn.” Or it could be multiple entities, such as “XYZ Corp., partner in Mutual Enterprises, a partnership.”

I understand that the information obtained will not be used in violation of any Federal of state equal opportunity law or regulation.

I also understand that I have a right to a copy of the credit history report and a Summary of my rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, should any adverse action regarding my candidacy be taken, based in whole or in part on the report.

This authorization shall remain in effect for one year from the date of signing.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:
